1 DEFINITIONS, INTERPRETATION AND CONSTRUCTION

1.1 Definitions

1.1.1 In these board rules, capitalized terms have the meaning as set out in Schedule 1.

1.2 Interpretation

1.2.1 Any reference in these board rules to "in writing" means in writing or by other reproducible electronic communication.

1.2.2 References to statutory provisions are to those provisions as they are in force from time to time.

1.2.3 Terms that are defined in the singular have a corresponding meaning in the plural.

1.2.4 Words denoting a gender include each other gender.

1.3 Construction

1.3.1 Schedules are part of these board rules.

1.3.2 Annexes are not part of these board rules and are attached for information purposes only.

2 COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DIVISION OF DUTIES

2.1 Composition

2.1.1 The Board consists of one or more Executive Directors and one or more Non-Executive Directors. The Board will be composed and function in such a way that the supervision by the Non-Executive Directors can be properly carried out and independent supervision is guaranteed.

2.1.2 The Board determines the number of Executive Directors and the number of Non-Executive Directors. The majority of the Board must be Non-Executive Directors.

2.1.3 The Non-Executive Directors prepare a profile for the composition of the Non-Executive Directors, taking account of the nature and the activities of the enterprises affiliated with the Company. The profile shall address (i) the desired expertise and background of the Non-Executive Directors, (ii) the desired diverse composition of the Non-Executive Directors in accordance with the D&I Policy, (iii) the number of Non-Executive Directors, and (iv) the independence of the Non-Executive Directors. The current profile is published on the Company's website.

2.1.4 The Board is composed in line with the profile as referred to in clause 2.1.3.

2.1.5 The Non-Executive Directors prepare a retirement schedule to prevent, where possible, reappointments occurring at the same time. The current retirement schedule is published on the Company's website.

2.2 Responsibilities and division of duties

2.2.1 The Board is charged with the management of the Company. The Board focuses on long-term value creation for the Company and its Business, is aware of the impact the actions of the Company and its Business have on the production and value chain and takes into account relevant stakeholder interests in this context. Each Director is responsible for the Company's general affairs. In performing their duties, the Directors shall be guided by the interests of the Company and its Business.

- 2.2.2 The Board may divide its duties and powers among the Directors with due observance of the following provisions:
- a) Non-Executive Directors may not be deprived of their duty to supervise the performance of Directors;
 - b) an Executive Director may not be appointed Senior Independent Director or vice-chairperson;
 - c) the power to make nominations for the appointment of a Director may not be allocated to Executive Directors; and
 - d) the power to determine the remuneration of an Executive Director may not be allocated to Executive Directors.
- 2.2.3 The Board still remains authorized to take decisions on duties and powers that have been allocated to a Director pursuant to these board rules. Any Director having such authority will inform the Board of all decisions adopted in the next Board meeting.
- 2.2.4 Each Director has the expertise required for the fulfilment of his duties.
- 2.2.5 Each Director provides the other Directors with all information required for the exercise of their duties in a timely manner.
- 2.2.6 The Directors have complete access to the Company's management in order to ensure that they can ask any questions and receive all information necessary to perform their duties.
- 2.2.7 The Directors may obtain information from officers and external advisers of the Company.
- 2.2.8 Schedule 2 sets out the Board's general duties and specifies how duties are currently divided between the Executive Directors.

2.3 Non-Executive Directors

- 2.3.1 The Non-Executive Directors supervise the Executive Directors' policy and performance of duties and the Company's general affairs and its Business, and give advice to the Executive Directors.
- 2.3.2 The Non-Executive Directors should constructively challenge and help develop proposals on strategy. Furthermore, the Non-Executive Directors are responsible for the supervision of the implementation of the strategy by the Executive Directors.
- 2.3.3 Schedule 3 sets out the general responsibilities of Non-Executive Directors, without prejudice to the provisions of clauses 2.3.1 and 2.3.2.
- 2.3.4 The Non-Executive Directors have the authority to adopt valid resolutions with respect to matters that fall within the scope of the duties allocated to them pursuant to Schedule 3 clause 1.1.3. Such resolution is considered a resolution of the Board.
- 2.3.5 The Executive Directors shall timely provide the Non-Executive Directors with the information they need to carry out their duties.

2.4 Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

- 2.4.1 The Board designates one of the Executive Directors as "Chief Executive Officer" ("CEO").
- 2.4.2 The CEO's duties are set out in Schedule 2.
- 2.4.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of these board rules, the tasks and responsibilities as set out in Schedule 2 are allocated to the CEO. The CEO has the authority to adopt valid resolutions with respect to matters that fall within the scope of the duties allocated to him pursuant to Schedule 2. Such resolution is considered a resolution of the Board.
- 2.4.4 If the CEO is absent or unable to act, the other Executive Director or Executive Directors shall temporarily be entrusted with the tasks and duties of the CEO, which may include the duties and decision-making pursuant to Schedule 2, unless otherwise provided for in these board rules.

2.5 Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

- 2.5.1 The Board designates one of the Executive Directors as "Chief Financial Officer" ("CFO").
- 2.5.2 The CFO's duties are set out in Schedule 2.
- 2.5.3 Notwithstanding any other provisions of these board rules, the tasks and responsibilities as set out in Schedule 2 are allocated to the CFO. The CFO has the authority to adopt valid resolutions with respect to matters that fall within the scope of the duties allocated to him pursuant to Schedule 2. Such resolution is considered a resolution of the Board.
- 2.5.4 If the CFO is absent or unable to act, the other Executive Director or Executive Directors shall temporarily be entrusted with the tasks and duties of the CFO, which may include the duties and decision-making pursuant to Schedule 2.

2.6 Senior Independent Director

- 2.6.1 The Board designates one of the Non-Executive Directors as "Senior Independent Director" and one of the Non-Executive Directors as vice-chairperson.
- 2.6.2 The Senior Independent Director cannot be a former Executive Director and must be independent in the meaning of the Code.
- 2.6.3 The Senior Independent Director's duties are set out in Schedule 3.
- 2.6.4 If the Senior Independent Director is absent or unable to act, the vice-chairperson is entrusted with the duties of the Senior Independent Director. If both the Senior Independent Director and the vice-chairperson are absent or unable to act, another Non-Executive Director designated by the Board may be entrusted with the duties of the Senior Independent Director.

3 COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

3.1 General

- 3.1.1 The Board, though remaining responsible, may assign certain tasks to one or more committees comprising of one or more Non-Executive Directors.
- 3.1.2 The task of the committees is to prepare the decision-making of the Board. Establishing committees does not diminish the responsibility of the Board and the Directors for obtaining information and forming an independent opinion. The committees cannot adopt resolutions on behalf of the Board.
- 3.1.3 Save for the permanent committees referred to in clause 3.2.1, the Board appoints the members of the committees. For each committee, the Board appoints a chairperson from among the committee members, and a secretary. The secretary does not need to be a Non-Executive Director.
- 3.1.4 The committees report on a regular basis to the Board about their actions, reviews, proposals and findings.

3.2 Committees

- 3.2.1 The Board has the following permanent committees:
- a) the Audit Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 4;
 - b) the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 5; and
 - c) the Sustainability Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 6.
- 3.2.2 The Board may establish ad hoc committees.
- 3.2.3 The role, duties and internal proceedings of ad hoc committees are set out in writing by the Board and will then form part of these board rules.

4 COMPANY SECRETARY

4.1 Duties and responsibilities

- 4.1.1 The Company Secretary supports the Board.
- 4.1.2 The Company Secretary:
- a) ensures that the proper procedures are followed and that the statutory obligations and obligations under the Articles of Association and these board rules are complied with;
 - b) facilitates the provision of information of the Board; and
 - c) supports the Senior Independent Director in the organization of the Board's affairs, including the provision of information, meeting agendas, evaluations and training programs.
- 4.1.3 If the Company Secretary identifies that the interests of the Executive Directors and the Non-Executive Directors diverge, resulting in a lack of clarity as to which interests the Company Secretary represents, the Company Secretary reports this to the Senior Independent Director.

- 4.1.4 The Company Secretary attends all Board meetings, unless the Board decides otherwise.
- 4.1.5 Under these board rules and after consultation with the Board, the Company Secretary may delegate one or more of the Company Secretary's duties to one or more persons who are employed by the Company or one of its affiliates as appointed by the Company Secretary.

4.2 Appointment and dismissal

- 4.2.1 The Board appoints and dismisses the Company Secretary. The Non-Executive Directors may propose the appointment or dismissal of the Company Secretary to the Board.

5 MEETINGS OF THE BOARD AND DECISION MAKING

5.1 Convening meetings and agenda

- 5.1.1 Meetings are held in accordance with a meeting schedule to be annually set by the Board. Additional meetings are convened at any Director's request.
- 5.1.2 Meetings are convened in a timely manner by the CEO or the Senior Independent Director or, if the CEO and Senior Independent Director are absent or unable to act, by any Director. The notice sets out the meeting agenda.
- 5.1.3 The Director convening the meeting sets the agenda for that meeting. The Directors may submit agenda items to the Director convening the meeting.
- 5.1.4 The Non-Executive Directors may meet in a non-executive session without the presence of the Executive Directors. Regularly, and at least annually, the Non-Executive Directors meet to discuss the subjects as referred to in clause 9.1.2. Minutes of the non-executive sessions will not be recorded, unless decided otherwise by a majority of the Non-Executive Directors in attendance of such non-executive sessions.

5.2 Meeting location

- 5.2.1 The Director convening the meeting sets the time and place of a Board meeting. The meetings are normally held at any of the Company's offices, but may also take place elsewhere if all Directors agree to this.
- 5.2.2 Meetings may also be held through telephone, videoconference or other means of electronic communication, if all participants can hear each other simultaneously. Directors attending the meeting by telephone, videoconference or electronic communication are considered present at the respective meeting.

5.3 Attendance

- 5.3.1 Each Director attends the Board meetings. Each Non-Executive Director attends the meetings of the committees that the Non-Executive Director is a member of. If a Director is frequently absent from these meetings, that Director must account for this. The report of the Non-Executive Directors states the rate of absenteeism from Board meetings and committee meetings for each Non-Executive Director.

- 5.3.2 A Director may be represented at a meeting by another Director who is entitled to vote and holding a proxy in writing.
- 5.3.3 The Board may require that certain officers and external advisers attend its meetings.
- 5.3.4 The external auditor attends the meeting of the Board at which the external auditor's report on the audit of the financial statements is discussed.

5.4 Chairperson of the meeting

- 5.4.1 The Senior Independent Director acts as Meeting Chairperson. If the Senior Independent Director is not present at a meeting, the vice-chairperson acts as Meeting Chairperson. If both the Senior Independent Director and the vice-chairperson are not present at a meeting, the CEO acts as Meeting Chairperson. If the Senior Independent Director, the vice-chairperson and the CEO are not present at a meeting and the Senior Independent Director has not appointed another Meeting Chairperson, the Directors present at the meeting will appoint one of the Non-Executive Directors as Meeting Chairperson.

5.5 Adoption of resolutions - quorum requirements

- 5.5.1 The Board may only adopt resolutions at a meeting if a majority of the Directors entitled to vote is present or represented at the meeting, unless Dutch law, the Articles of Association or these board rules prescribe a larger majority.
- 5.5.2 If the Meeting Chairperson believes there is an urgent situation that requires the Board's immediate resolution, the quorum requirement referred to in clause 5.5.1 does not apply, provided that:
 - a) at least the CEO, the Senior Independent Director and one other Director entitled to vote are present or represented at the meeting; and
 - b) reasonable efforts have been made to involve the other Directors in the decision making.

5.6 Adoption of resolutions - majority requirements

- 5.6.1 Each Director has one vote.
- 5.6.2 Where possible, the Board adopts its resolutions by unanimous vote. If this is not possible, the resolution is adopted by an absolute majority of votes cast, unless Dutch law, the Articles of Association or these board rules prescribe a larger majority. Blank votes, invalid votes and abstentions from voting are regarded as not having been cast. In oral voting, abstention is considered equivalent to a blank vote.
- 5.6.3 The following Board resolutions require the consenting vote of at least a majority of the Non-Executive Directors entitled to vote:
 - a) to (i) issue shares, (ii) grant a right to subscribe for shares or options or (iii) limit or exclude pre-emptive rights;
 - b) a proposal to the General Meeting to resolve to effect a reduction of the issued share capital;
 - c) (a proposal to the General Meeting to resolve) to acquire or alienate shares;
 - d) to make annual or interim dividend distributions in cash or partly in cash, in the form of shares or in a form other than in cash;

- e) a proposal to the General Meeting regarding the profits remaining after any allocation to the Company's reserves;
- f) to decide that payment to the shareholders shall be at the expense of the reserves of the Company;
- g) a proposal to the General Meeting to resolve to (i) amend the Articles of Association or (ii) dissolve the Company;
- h) (a proposal to the General Meeting to resolve) to effect a legal merger or a legal division;
- i) to divide tasks within the Board;
- j) to appoint or dismiss the Company Secretary;
- k) to enter into a transaction (i) in which there is a conflict of interest with a Director; or (ii) between the Company and a legal entity or natural person holding at least ten percent (10%) of the Company's shares;
- l) to approve the acceptance by an Executive Director of a membership of a supervisory board or a position as non-executive director outside the Group;
- m) to grant any personal loans, guarantees or similar facilities to a Director;
- n) to appoint or dismiss the senior internal auditor;
- o) to nominate a candidate as external auditor;
- p) to adopt the terms relating to the internal audit function;
- q) to approve the audit plan drawn up by the internal audit function, which should give attention to interaction with the Audit Committee and the external auditor;
- r) to amend the Company's dividend policy;
- s) on subjects where a Director has a conflict of interest as referred to in these board rules; and
- t) to amend these board rules.

The Non-Executive Directors, after consultation with the Board, may from time to time amend the list in this clause 5.6.3, provided that the amendments are clearly specified and communicated in writing to the Board.

- 5.6.4 In the event of a tie in a meeting of the Board, the proposal is rejected, except in case that (i) the Founder is a Director, (ii) he is not considered unable to act and is entitled to vote on the proposal concerned, in such case, the Founder as a Director has a casting vote in a tied vote.
- 5.6.5 If there is insufficient agreement on a proposed resolution during the meeting, the Meeting Chairperson may defer the proposal for further discussion or withdraw the proposal.
- 5.6.6 The Meeting Chairperson and the Company Secretary or another person designated as the Meeting Secretary by the Meeting Chairperson or the Company Secretary ensure that adopted resolutions are communicated to all Directors not present at the meeting, without delay.

5.7 Meeting minutes

- 5.7.1 The Meeting Secretary prepares the meeting minutes. The minutes are adopted:
- a) by a resolution of the Board at the next Board meeting; or
 - b) by the CEO or the Senior Independent Director, after having consulted the Directors present or represented at that meeting.
- 5.8 Adopting resolutions without holding a meeting
- 5.8.1 The Board may also adopt resolutions without holding a meeting, provided that:
- a) the resolutions are adopted in writing; and
 - b) all Directors entitled to vote have consented to adopting the resolutions without holding a meeting.
- 5.8.2 Clauses 5.6.1 through 5.6.6 apply to adopting resolutions without holding a meeting.

5.9 Evidence of adopted resolutions

- 5.9.1 Resolutions of a meeting can be demonstrated by the minutes, a statement, a confirmation or an extract of the particular meeting signed by the Meeting Chairperson.
- 5.9.2 Resolutions adopted at any meeting can also be demonstrated by the minutes, a statement, a confirmation or an extract signed by the Senior Independent Director and the CEO.

6 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

6.1 Preventing conflicts of interest

- 6.1.1 Any conflict of interest between the Company and a Director must be prevented. To avoid conflicts of interest, adequate measures should be taken. The Non-Executive Directors are responsible for dealing with any conflicts of interest regarding Directors or majority shareholders in relation to the Company.
- 6.1.2 Directors must be alert to conflicts of interest and should in any case refrain from:
- a) competing with the Company;
 - b) demanding or accepting substantial gifts from the Company for themselves or their Family Members;
 - c) providing unjustified advantages to third parties at the Company's expense; or
 - d) taking advantage of business opportunities that the Company is entitled to, for themselves or for their Family Members.

6.2 Definition

- 6.2.1 For the purpose of clauses 6.1 through 6.6, a "conflict of interest" means:
- a) a direct or indirect personal conflict of interest within the meaning of article 2:129(6) BW that is of material significance to the Company and the Business; and
 - b) any other situation which causes reasonable doubt about whether the Director concerned is primarily guided in the decision-making process by the interests of the Company and the Business.

- 6.2.2 A Director has a potential conflict of interest if the Company intends to enter into a transaction with:
- a) a legal entity in which that Director or a Family Member personally has a material financial interest;
 - b) a legal entity whose management or supervisory board includes a Family Member;
 - c) a legal entity where that Director has a management or supervisory position; or
 - d) that Director or his/her Family Member.

6.3 Consequences

- 6.3.1 A Director may not participate in the Board's deliberations and decision-making process on a subject where the Director is found to have a conflict of interest pursuant to clause 6.5.1. Consequently, the Director does not qualify as a Director entitled to vote in relation to that subject.
- 6.3.2 If no resolution of the Board can be adopted as a result of all Directors being unable to participate in the deliberations and decision-making process due to a conflict of interest, the resolution concerned may nevertheless be adopted by the Board and clause 6.3.1 does not apply.

6.4 Obligation to report

- 6.4.1 A conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest must be reported, without delay, to the Senior Independent Director. The Senior Independent Director must without delay, report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest relating to him/her to the vice-chairperson. In addition, a Director must, without delay, report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the (other) Directors and the Company Secretary. All relevant information, including any relevant information concerning his or her Family Member, must be reported to the Company Secretary.

6.5 Determination of conflicts of interest

- 6.5.1 The Non-Executive Directors decide whether a Director has a conflict of interest, without the Director concerned being present.

6.6 At arm's length. Consent of the majority of the Non-Executive Directors

- 6.6.1 Resolutions of the Board on a subject where the Non-Executive Directors have found one or more Directors to have a conflict of interest:
- a) may only be adopted if the Company enters into the transaction on terms that are customary in the market and in compliance with the law of the relevant jurisdiction; and
 - b) require a resolution taken with the consent of at least the majority of the Non-Executive Directors if the conflict of interest is of material significance to the Company or to the relevant Director, with due observance of clause 6.5.
- 6.6.2 Resolutions as referred to in 6.6.1 are published in the Management Report, together with a statement of the conflict of interest and a declaration that Best Practice provisions 2.7.3 and 2.7.4 of the Code have been complied with.

6.7 Loans and guarantees

- 6.7.1 The Company may not grant any personal loans, guarantees or similar facilities to a Director, unless it does so in the normal course of business and on terms applicable to the Company's personnel as a whole. Loans may not be waived.

6.8 Regulations governing ownership of securities

- 6.8.1 The Company draws up regulations governing ownership of, and transactions in, securities by a Director, other than securities issued by the Company.

7 MISCONDUCT AND IRREGULARITIES

- 7.1.1 The Board establishes a procedure for reporting actual or suspected irregularities within the Company and the Business. The current procedure is published on the Company's website. The Board ensures that employees have the opportunity to file a report without jeopardizing their legal position.
- 7.1.2 The Executive Directors inform the Senior Independent Director without delay of any signs of actual or suspected material misconduct or irregularities within the Company and the Business. If the actual or suspected misconduct or irregularity pertains to the functioning of an Executive Director, employees can report this directly to the Senior Independent Director.
- 7.1.3 The Directors monitor the operation of the procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct or irregularities, appropriate and independent investigations into signs of misconduct or irregularities, and, if an instance of misconduct or irregularity has been discovered, an adequate follow-up of any recommendations for remedial actions.
- 7.1.4 In order to safeguard the independence of the investigation in cases where an Executive Director is involved, the Non-Executive Directors may initiate their own investigation into any irregularities that have been discovered and to coordinate this investigation.

8 GENERAL MEETING

- 8.1.1 The Senior Independent Director is the main contact on behalf of the Board for the General Meeting.
- 8.1.2 The Board adequately provides any information the General Meeting requires, unless overriding interests (zwaarwegende belangen) of the Company or any laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Company prevent the Board from doing so.
- 8.1.3 If the Board decides not to provide the General Meeting with all information requested with the invocation of an overriding interest on the part of the Company, it must give reasons for this.
- 8.1.4 Further provisions relating to the General Meeting are set out in Annex 1.

9 PERFORMANCE OF DIRECTORS

9.1 Evaluation

- 9.1.1 The Senior Independent Director is the main contact on behalf of the Board regarding the functioning of the Directors, other than the Senior Independent Director. The vice-chairperson is the main contact on behalf of the Board regarding the Senior Independent Director's functioning.

- 9.1.2 The Non-Executive Directors regularly, and at least annually, evaluate the functioning of the Board as a whole including the performance of the various committees, their own performance, the individual performance of the Non-Executive Directors, the Executive Directors as a collective, the Executive Directors individually, without any Executive Directors being present. The Non-Executive Directors discuss the conclusions of the evaluation, including in relation to the succession of Executive Directors. Attention is paid to:
- a) substantive aspects, the mutual interaction, the interaction within the various committees and the interaction with the Executive Directors;
 - b) events that occurred in practice and from which lessons may be learned; and
 - c) the desired profile, composition, competencies and expertise of the Board.

9.2 Remuneration of the Non-Executive Directors

- 9.2.1 The remuneration of the Non-Executive Directors reflects the time spent and the responsibilities of their role. Non-Executive Directors may be awarded remuneration in the form of shares or rights to shares. Shares held by a Non-Executive Director in the Company are long-term investments. Share transactions in the Company of a Non-Executive Director are reported to the compliance officer of the Company in accordance with the insider trading policy of the Company.

10 POSITIONS OUTSIDE THE COMPANY

- 10.1.1 A Director informs the Board before accepting positions outside the Company.
- 10.1.2 Executive Directors may not accept a position as a supervisory director or non-executive director without the Board's prior approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld.
- 10.1.3 Other positions of Directors are discussed at a Board meeting at least annually.

11 CULTURE AND CODE OF CONDUCT

- 11.1.1 The Board is responsible for stimulating openness and accountability within the Board and between different organs within the Company. The Board is responsible for creating a culture aimed at creating long-term value for the Company and the Business.
- 11.1.2 The Board adopts values for the Company and the Business that contribute to a culture focused on long-term value creation. The Board is responsible for the incorporation and maintenance of these values within the Company and the Business. The Board encourages behaviour that is in keeping with the values and propagate these values through leading by example. Attention must be paid to the following, amongst other things:
- a) the strategy and business model;
 - b) the environment in which the Company operates; and
 - c) the existing culture within the Company and whether it is desirable to make any changes to it.

- 11.1.3 The Board draws up a Code of Conduct and monitors its effectiveness and its compliance by the Board and the Company's employees. The current Code of Conduct is published on the Company's website.

12 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 12.1.1 Directors must treat all information and documentation obtained in connection with their position as Directors with the necessary discretion, integrity and confidentiality.

13 MISCELLANEOUS

13.1 Miscellaneous

- 13.1.1 The Board may occasionally resolve not to comply with these board rules.
- 13.1.2 The Board may amend these board rules.
- 13.1.3 These board rules are published on the Company's website.
- 13.1.4 If any provision of these board rules is held to be or becomes invalid (in each case, either in its entirety or in part) that provision will, to the extent of its invalidity, be deemed not to form part of these board rules, but the validity of the remainder of these board rules will not be affected.
- 13.1.5 If any provision of these board rules is held to be or becomes inconsistent with the Articles of Association and/or law, the latter shall prevail.

13.2 Governing law and jurisdiction

- 13.2.1 These board rules are governed exclusively by Dutch law.
- 13.2.2 Any disputes arising out of or in connection with these board rules, including disputes concerning their applicability, will be resolved in first instance by the courts in Amsterdam, the Netherlands.

1 GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

1.1 General

- 1.1.1 The Board manages the Company.
- 1.1.2 The Board is responsible for ensuring the continuity of the Company and the Business. The Board must determine how long-term value creation is relevant for the Company and the Business, be aware of the impact the actions of the Company and the Business have on the production and value chain and take into account relevant stakeholder interests in this context.

When developing the Company's strategy, attention is paid to the following:

- a) the strategy's implementation and feasibility;
 - b) the business model applied by the Company and the market in which the Business operates;
 - c) opportunities and risks for the Company;
 - d) the Company's operational and financial goals and their impact on its future position in relevant markets;
 - e) the interests of stakeholders;
 - f) the balanced contribution to the communities in which the Company operates through the payment of taxes; and
 - g) the ESG-related impact of the Company and its Business, throughout the entire production chain.
- 1.1.3 In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Board shall be guided by the interests of the Company and the Business.
- 1.1.4 Each Executive Director and Non-Executive Director follows an induction programme. This programme covers general financial, social and legal affairs, financial reporting by the Company, any specific aspects that are unique to the Company and the Business activities, the Company's culture and responsibilities of an Executive Director respectively a Non-Executive Director.
- 1.1.5 The Board conducts an annual review to identify the aspects with regard to which an Executive Director or a Non-Executive Director requires training or education.
- 1.1.6 The responsibilities of the Board include:
- a) setting the Company's management agenda;
 - b) enhancing the Group's performance;
 - c) developing a general strategy, including the strategy for realizing long-term value creation, including the Company's strategy on the ESG aspects of the Business, and taking into account financial and non-financial risks connected to the Group's business activities;

- d) formulating the specific objectives for the ESG strategy;
- e) ensuring the Company has adequate internal risk management and control systems in place and identifying and managing the risks associated with the Company's strategy and activities;

- m) handling corporate social responsibility issues;
- n) ensuring that internal procedures are established and maintained which safeguard that all relevant information is known to Board in a timely fashion;
- o) developing a procedure for reporting actual or suspected misconduct or irregularities, and taking appropriate follow-up action on the basis of these reports;
- p) discussing the items reported on by the Audit Committee as referred to in Schedule 4;
- q) playing a facilitating role in the external auditor's engagement process;
- r) ensuring that the external auditor receives all necessary information to perform his work in a timely fashion. The Board gives the external auditor the opportunity to respond to the information provided;
- s) ensuring that the draft audit plan is discussed with the external auditor before the external auditor presents it to the Audit Committee; and
- t) assessing on an annual basis, in consultation with the Audit Committee, the way in which the internal audit function fulfils its responsibility.

1.2 Risk management

- 1.2.1 The Board identifies and analyses the risks associated with the strategy and activities of the Company and the Business. It is responsible for establishing the risk appetite, as well as the measures that are put in place in order to counter the risks being taken. Based on the risk assessment, the Board designs, implements and maintains adequate internal risk management and control systems. These systems are integrated into the work processes and are familiar to those whose work they are relevant to.
- 1.2.2 The Board monitors the operation of the internal risk management and control systems and carries out a systematic assessment of their design and effectiveness at least once a year. This monitoring covers all material control measures relating to strategic, operational, compliance and reporting risks. Attention is given to observed weaknesses, instances of misconduct and irregularities, indications from whistleblowers, lessons learned, and findings from the internal audit function and the external auditor. Improvements are made to internal risk management and control systems.

- 2.1.1. The Non-Executive Directors' supervision includes the supervision of relations with shareholders.
- 2.1.2. The chairperson of the General Meeting is responsible for ensuring the proper conduct of business at meetings in order to promote a meaningful discussion at the meeting.
- 2.1.3. The agenda of the General Meeting lists which items are up for discussion and which items are to be voted on. The following items are separate agenda items:
 - a) material changes to the Articles of Association;
 - b) proposals relating to the appointment of Directors;
 - c) the Company's policy on additions to reserves and on dividends (the level and purpose of the addition to reserves, the amount of the dividend and the type of dividend);
 - d) proposals to pay out dividend;
 - e) resolutions to approve the management conducted by the Directors (discharge of Directors from liability);
 - f) each substantial change in the Company's corporate governance structure and compliance with the Code; and
 - g) the appointment or re-appointment of the external auditor. If a new external auditor is appointed or an external auditor is re-appointed, this item states which external auditor is preferred by the Audit Committee.
- 2.1.4. A proposal for approval or authorization by the General Meeting is explained in writing. In its explanation, the Board deals with all facts and circumstances relevant to the approval or authorization to be granted. The notes to the agenda are posted on the Company's website.
- 2.1.5. If a shareholder who is authorized to do so by law arranges for an item to be put on the agenda, the shareholder explains this at the meeting and, if necessary, answers questions about it.
- 2.1.6. A shareholder only exercises the right to put items on the agenda after consultation with the Board. If one or more shareholders intend to request an agenda item that may result in a change in the Company's strategy – for example, as a result of the dismissal of one or several Directors – the Board is given the opportunity to stipulate a reasonable period in which to respond (the response time). The opportunity to stipulate the response time also applies to an intention as referred to above for judicial leave to call a General Meeting pursuant to article 2:110 BW. The relevant shareholder respects the response time stipulated by the Board, within the meaning of Best Practice provision 4.1.7 of the Code.

- 2.1.7. Each Director nominated for appointment attends the General Meeting at which votes will be cast on its nomination.
- 2.1.8. The external auditor may be questioned by the General Meeting in relation to its report on the fairness of the financial statements. The external auditor for this purpose attends and may address this meeting.
- 2.1.9. The report of the General Meeting is available, on request, to the shareholders no later than three months after the end of the meeting. Shareholders then have the opportunity to respond to the report in the subsequent three-month period.

3 PROVISION OF INFORMATION

- 3.1.1 An outline of the Company's policy on contact and dialogue with the shareholders is posted on the Company's website.
- 3.1.2 Analyst meetings, analyst presentations, presentations to institutional or other investors and press conferences are announced in advance on the Company's website and by means of press releases. Analyst meetings and presentations to investors do not take place shortly before the publication of the regular financial information. All shareholders can follow these meetings and presentations in real time, by means of webcasting, telephone or otherwise. After the meetings, the presentations are posted on the Company's website.
- 3.1.3 The Company posts and updates information relevant to the shareholders and which is required to publish or submit in a separate section of the Company's website pursuant to company and securities law provisions that apply to the Company.
- 3.1.4 The contacts between the Board on the one hand and the press and financial analysts on the other are handled and structured carefully and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. The Company will not do anything that might compromise the independence of analysts in relation to the Company and vice versa.
- 3.1.5 The Board outlines all existing or potential anti-takeover measures in the Management Report and indicates who and in what circumstances is likely to use these measures.

4 CASTING VOTES

- 4.1.1 Shareholders, including institutional investors, exercise their voting rights on an informed basis and as they see fit. Institutional investors who use the services of voting advisers (i) should encourage their voting advisers to be prepared to enter into a dialogue with the Company regarding their voting policy and guidelines and (ii) ensure that their votes are cast in line with their own voting policy.
- 4.1.2 The Company gives shareholders and other persons entitled to vote the possibility of issuing voting proxies or voting instructions to an independent third party before the General Meeting.
- 4.1.3 Shareholders shall abstain from voting if their short position in the Company is larger than their long position.
