CTPark Hustopeče

Industrial tradition and skilled workforce

Hustopeče lies in one of South Moravia’s most industrially developed areas, known for its engineering, food production, plastics, and logistics sectors. The region benefits from a strong base of skilled workers, supported by nearby vocational schools and universities in Brno. Local employers value the combination of technical know-how, manufacturing experience, and reliability typical of the regional workforce. The park’s location also allows easy daily commuting from surrounding towns such as Břeclav, Mikulov, Hodonín, and Velké Pavlovice.

- ▶ Direct access to the D2 motorway (Brno–Bratislava)
- ▶ Skilled workforce from Hustopeče, Mikulov, and Břeclav
- ▶ Only 15 minutes from Brno

Vị trí chiến lược và kết nối

CTPark Hustopeče occupies a prime position directly adjacent to the D2 motorway, part of the international corridor connecting Brno with Bratislava and Budapest. Its location between four key cities – Brno, Břeclav, Vienna, and Bratislava – offers exceptional access to both Czech and Central European markets. The proximity to the Austrian and Slovak borders supports export-oriented operations, while efficient transport links ensure smooth logistics for manufacturing and distribution companies.
